Presented by Mohamed and Maria Morsi, Lifelong Learning members and presenters.
6 Mondays • March 11 to April 15 • 9:30 - 10:50 AM

Exploring Loneliness
One in five seniors self-identify as lonely, but never discuss it because of its negative social stigma. Learn what loneliness is, how to identify it in others, as well as possible causes and remedies. We’ll also take a look at the lighter side of loneliness through movies, poetry, song lyrics and, yes, jokes! Presented by Lynne Foosaner, BA, a former adjunct instructor at University of Nevada Las Vegas, a published writer and a public relations specialist.
6 Mondays • March 11 to April 15 • 9:30 - 10:50 AM
Down Mexico Way
There are many misconceptions that exist about Mexico. Through a series of lectures, videos, and class discussions, these misconceptions will be clarified. We will also learn the many traditions, folklore, music and ethnic foods of Mexico. Presented by Alicia Romeu, who has several Master’s degrees, is a retired Spanish teacher and a member of the Lifelong Learning Society.
6 Mondays • March 11 to April 15 • 11:00 AM -12:20 PM

WEDNESDAY SESSIONS

Introduction to Jazz in Sight and Sound
Learn how jazz is played, the history of its development, and the background of some of its most notable musicians through their recordings and visual performances. You will hear the music of various eras and styles from the first “jass” recordings in 1917 in order to understand and appreciate this uniquely American art form. Presented by John Banger, a lifelong music lover, who became interested in jazz as a teenager and Chandler Cook, who plays woodwinds in big bands, a concert band and an orchestra.
6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 9:30 – 10:50 AM

A Forum on National and International Events
We will explore and discuss the views and positions expressed in the internet, straight news and opinions, and the rise of fake news, focusing on NPR, Fox News, MSNBC and CNN. We will review articles from print media, including The Wall Street Journal, New York Times, Philadelphia Inquirer and USA Today. We will delve into and encourage discussion from all points of view. April 3 is open moderator day – step up and lead the class! Moderator Dan Shoulberg, a retired executive, is the coordinator of the Lifelong Learning Society and has led discussion groups for the program since 2002.
6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 9:30 – 10:50 AM

Design Principles: How Innovation Alters the Quality of Life
There are many design professions across a wide range of industries, but really, we are all designers. Some of the same design principles used in industry also apply to personal planning and family decision making. Discover what a designer does and examine design processes used by leading innovators. Learn why some have succeeded and others have failed. Also, we will discuss if design processes or creativity can be learned. Are designs created or do they evolve? Some examples will be drawn from the instructor’s experience as a design engineer, design quality consultant, entrepreneur and leader of non-profit organizations. Presented by Sandy Catz, MEng, Lifelong Learning Society member who leads discussions for Greater Philadelphia Thinking Society and Socrates Café.
6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 9:30 – 10:50 AM
Welcome to Kino Europa!

Join us as we view and discuss six European Art films. They are documentaries of moral, social, political or religious issues of extreme importance, while facing and attacking the fragmentation of contemporary life. Goodby Children and Unlovely focus on the loss of childhood innocence; Turkish for Beginners dwells on relationships, both young and old, and ethnic tensions; We Have a Pope stresses the need for human contact over the responsibility of leading a religious corporation; and The Amber Amulet reveals the damaging allegiance between East and West German political systems ripping apart a family. The final film will remain a mystery. All films are in German or French with English subtitles. A discussion will follow each film. Presented by Michael Heinsdorf, MDiv, STM, MA, a former Lutheran pastor, high school German instructor and adjunct faculty member at LaSalle University. NOTE: Please note the earlier start time for this course.

6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Play Reading 102

Be an actor with no memorization and no stage fright – and have a lot of fun. Participants will have the opportunity to read a part in three plays during the course. We will discuss and examine plays from the standpoint of a director – theme, strengths, weaknesses, sets, costumes, character, etc. The plays will be The Hallelujah Girls, Agatha Christie’s And Then There Were None and Other Desert Cities. Students are responsible for purchasing scripts, for approximately $10.00 per script. Presented by Arnie and Lorri Finkel, who have been conducting and directing musical productions for the past 55 years.

6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 11:10 AM - 12:30 PM

Whistleblowers, Leakers and Spies

Names like Snowden and Manning have punctuated discussions about our government’s ability to keep secrets. What is a whistleblower? Are they heroes or traitors? Are leakers any different from whistleblowers or spies? Join a former intelligence officer who has dealt with highly classified material to discuss the differences between protected information and the public’s right to know. Presented by Ira Cooperman, who has worked with the CIA and lectured at the Chautauqua Institution and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 11:10 AM - 12:30 PM
Course Offerings

Memoir Writing: Creating Your Legacy
Explore the what, why and how of memoir writing with this interactive class. Bring paper, pen and courage. Don’t forget your reading glasses! Presented by Dianna Marder, a retired Philadelphia Inquirer Staff Writer who has taught memoir writing to the young, the old and the imprisoned.
6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 2:50 – 4:10 PM

The Holocaust Redux - Never Again
Arguably, one of the most important events of the last century was the Holocaust. We will revisit this historical period with some new perspective and different angles. Discover the background of Adolf Hitler, the origins of his ideas and the roots of his hatred. Learn about the methodical program that Hitler instilled in Germany to advance his aims. Discuss the origins of antisemitism and how it is still impacting the world today. Presented by James H. Robertson, who holds an MA in Modern European History from Washington State University and is an Adjunct Professor of History at Eastern University.
6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 2:50 – 4:10 PM

Drawing: Explore Your Inner Artist
Anyone can learn to draw! Come and enjoy drawing with fellow classmates in a friendly supportive environment. Draw from still life, photos and a model. Instructor will supply individual guidance. Open to all levels. We will be using pencil and charcoal. Bring drawing paper and drawing pencils to the first class. Presented by Jackie Drewes who has worked as an art recruiter for a small school and has pursued a forty-year study of painting and drawing.
6 Wednesdays • March 13 to April 17 • 2:50 – 4:10 PM

First Friday Book Club - class will meet on the first Friday of the month
The first book for the spring is In the Café of Lost Youth by Patrick Modiano. Participants should read the book prior to the first class session. Books can be purchased through local bookstores and online vendors. Presented by Michael Heinsdorf, MDiv, STM, MA, a former Lutheran pastor, high school German instructor and adjunct faculty member at LaSalle University.

- Four Great Ladies
- Remembering the Vietnam War: A Reappraisal
- Big Bands
- Astronomy
- The Fact and Fiction of Jane Austen
Hamilton - Evolution or Revolution
The Broadway smash show, Hamilton, made history by mixing Hip-Hop with Musical Theater. Lin-Manuel Miranda and the show he wrote were awarded Tonys for Best Musical, Best Score, Featured Actor and Actress, Best Direction and more! We will explore the long relationship between popular music and Broadway, social messages in Musical Theater, and the genius of Lin-Manuel Miranda. This multi-media presentation includes live performance. Presented by Steven Pollack, performer, director, lecturer, actor and teacher. NOTE: Please note the start and end times for this course.
3 Mondays • June 3 to 17 • 9:00 - 10:50 AM

Forensics
Why is Forensics important? We will discuss fingerprints, blood analysis, forensic entomology, human remains, and serial killers. How does the use of DNA in genetics help solve crimes? Presented by Susanne Johnston, an educator for 47 years, and currently the genealogist for the Daughters of the American Revolution.
4 Mondays • June 3 to 24 • 9:30 - 10:50 AM

Discussion Topics from the Thinking Society
Take this opportunity to participate in great discussions, many topics of which will be selected from the Greater Philadelphia Thinking Society. Topics may include science, technology, philosophy, politics, education, economics, psychology, art, literature and religion. There will be online preparation materials, typically short articles and/or videos. You will need a personal computer or tablet with internet access. (Use a computer at the library if you don’t have one). Presentations to kick off discussions will be short. Most learning will come from ideas, interpretations and personal experiences of the participants, inspired by online resource material. Presented by Sandy Catz, MEng, Lifelong Learning Society member who leads discussions for Greater Philadelphia Thinking Society and Socrates Café.
4 Mondays • June 3 to 24 • 11:00 AM - 12:20 PM
World War I
Today’s world is very much the product of the massive conflagration that was World War I. We will examine the War’s origin, conduct, conclusion and results, both intended and unintended. We will also look at the lives of the participants and try to draw out some lessons to help us understand today’s world situation. Presented by John Shepherd, an avocational historian, an Army veteran, systems engineer, researcher and teacher/lecturer.
4 Mondays • June 3 to 24 • 11:00 AM - 12:20 PM

Living a Photographic Life- Balancing the Day to Day with Personal Enrichment
Learn how to make photography a rewarding, fun and integral part of your life. Students will have the opportunity to create a portfolio of photographs on a theme of their choice. Students will also create photographs to bring in for discussion and friendly critique. Through this course, students will learn how to “keep their heads in the game” and create a strong photographic portfolio to be proud of! Presented by Michael Marks, who considers himself a self-taught “amateur” photographer.
4 Mondays • June 3 to 24 • 12:50 - 2:10 PM

Impact and Influence of India on America
A comprehensive course with four lectures has been compiled to highlight the major impact India has had on the US with respect to Culture and Entertainment, Science and Technology, Trade and Tariffs and Geopolitical Environment. These lectures will examine and illustrate specific contributions that both India and the first/second-generation Asian Indians in the United States have had in these areas. Examples include: Diplomat and politician, Nikki Haley; Journalist and Neurosurgeon, Sanjay Gupta; and Journalist and Political Analyst, Fareed Zakaria. Coordinated by T. Sarada and Uma Prabhakar, and presented by members of Bharatiya Temple.
4 Mondays • June 3 to 24 • 12:50 - 2:10 PM
Venice - The Most Unique City in the World
This seminar will study the mythical and historical origins of this Italian treasure. Learn how Venice rose from the marshes of northern Italy to become one of the most dominant naval powers in the Mediterranean Sea. The unique government and fascinating economy will be discussed in detail. This course will trace Venice’s dramatic fall from power to ultimately becoming one of the hottest tourist spots on the planet. Finally, we will discuss the current problems that beset this irreplaceable treasure and proposals for the future. Presented by James H. Robertson, who holds an MA in Modern European History from Washington State University and is an Adjunct Professor of History at Eastern University.
4 Wednesdays • June 5 to 26 • 9:30 – 10:50 AM

Tai Chi for Health
Tai Chi is a practice originating from Chinese martial arts and traditional Chinese medicine. It is known for its health benefits, including stress reduction, improved balance and joint pain relief. Movements emphasize relaxation and promote meditation. This program includes Qigong breathing exercise. Presented by Larry Samlin, who has been practicing Tai Chi for the past 8 years and holds a teaching certification from the Tai Chi for Health Institute. NOTE: Please note the start and end times for this course.
4 Wednesdays • June 5 to 26 • 9:30 – 10:30 AM
Four Great Ladies
We will discuss Eleanor Roosevelt, Golda Meir, Ruth Bader Ginsburg and Hillary Clinton, four great leaders of the world. How have these leaders influenced world history and what were their secret illnesses? Presented by Allan B. Schwartz, MD, professor of Medicine, Drexel University College of Medicine.
4 Wednesdays • June 5 to 26 • 11:00 AM - 12:20 PM

Remembering the Vietnam War
In the lexicon of American history and politics, the name “Vietnam” is a synonym for an American failure. What lessons have we learned from this war? We will examine the impact and the consequences of the U.S. involvement in the wars of Southeast Asia from 1955-75 through personal experiences, literature and films. Presented by Ira Cooperman, a Vietnam veteran with the CIA and military intelligence experience who has lectured on this topic at the Chautauqua Institution and the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.
4 Wednesdays • June 5 to 26 • 11:00 AM - 12:20 PM

Big Bands
Our instructor will use his experience to interpret the music, musicians and leaders of the Big Band era. The class will showcase DVDs and CDs to walk you down memory lane featuring the most preeminent bands of their time. Presented by Lou Zager, (aka Lou Gold) a local band leader for more than 30 years.
4 Wednesdays • June 5 to 26 • 12:50 - 2:10 PM
The Fact and Fiction of Jane Austen

Why do critics consider her novels classics, and do those works really stand the test of time? Her wit and humor certainly do. In this overview of Austen’s life and work, no readings are required; however, if you choose, you can read a particular work, or sample a variety of her writing. Presented by Elizabeth Steele, a member of the Jane Austen society of North America for over twenty years.

4 Wednesdays • June 5 to 26 • 12:50 - 2:10 PM

Astronomy

Join us for a thrilling adventure to learn more about the sun, moon, planets, asteroids, comets, meteors, stars, clusters, nebula, galaxies and much more. Explore the different constellations and learn how to navigate the skies using telescopes, binoculars and your very own eyes!

Presented by Michael Tucker, an advanced amateur astronomer with many years of experience.

NOTE: Please note the start and end times for this course.
