Leadership & Career Studies Eligibility Criteria

The Application Screening Committee will review your application and determine your eligibility for the program. If you are determined to be eligible for the program, you will be scheduled for an interview. You will be interviewed by the interview team in person by yourself. After your personal interview the interview team will meet with family members or support people to answer any questions about Leadership & Career Studies.

Students will be selected for admission after all applicant interviews are completed. Please do not call about the status of your application, as we will not be able to provide this information for you over the phone. You will be notified of your acceptance status by May 1, 2020.

Note: Due to space limitations, not all applicants who complete the application and meet the "criteria for admission" can be accepted in Leadership & Career Studies.

The decision to offer or deny admission to the program will be made by the Screening Committee in their best judgment and in the best interest of the applicant. Admission is based on the following criteria:

- 1. Applicants must be between the ages of 18-26 at the start of the program.
- 2. The applicant must have an intellectual disability as documented through the County Office of Intellectual Disabilities/Developmental Disabilities in which the applicant resides.
- 3. Must be registered with Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR)
- 4. If accepted, obtain all necessary documents to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Recent federal income tax returns, W-2's, and a Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID.
- 5. The applicant must have sufficient emotional and independent stability to participate in all aspects of the Leadership & Career Studies coursework and campus environment.
- 6. The applicant must demonstrate the ability to accept and follow reasonable rules and behave respectfully towards others. Note: Leadership & Career Studies does not have the personnel to support students with difficult and challenging behaviors nor can we dispense medications to students.
- 7. The applicant must demonstrate the desire to attend the Leadership & Career Studies and adhere to all the Leadership & Career Studies policies regarding attendance and participation in the Leadership & Career Studies coursework, typical Temple University classes, and be willing and able to spend ten hours every week of the 16 week semester with their assigned mentor engaging in academic and college life activities. All applicants must also be available to attend day and evening classes and student activities.
- 8. Applicants selected must be available to attend a week long Student Orientation scheduled before the start of the Fall semester (August 17 through August 21, 2020)
- 9. Applicants must have a transportation plan for attending classes and activities on Temple University's campus. NOTE: Temple University and the Leadership & Career Studies staff are unable to provide transportation to and from the campus or assist with travel training.
- 10. Applicants must have an operating cell phone with them at all times while on campus.
