

Ambler Arboretum Speaker Series

Designed for all levels of horticultural skill and enthusiasm, this series of programs by regional experts will inspire you while challenging your way of thinking about horticulture.

JAN 30

Lecture and Author Meet and Greet

Victoria Johnson,
American Eden

FEB
27

Make and Take: Table-Top Terrarium Workshop

Monika Schleifer
Buttonwood Blooms

MAR
27

2nd Annual Celebration of Women in Horticulture – Plants with a Past: Garden Archeology

Dr. Chantel White
Univ. of Pennsylvania

APR
24

What You Need to Know about Spotted Lanternfly in 2019

Erin Kinley
Penn State Extension

MAY 22

An Introduction to Organic Land Care

Richard A. McCoy
McCoy Horticultural
Services

JUN
26

Insects in the Garden: Talk and Walk

Pam Ruch
Morven Museum & Gardens

JUL
24

Wild Edibles! Walk, Talk and Tasting

Debbie Naha-Koretzky
Wild Edibles Lady

AUG
14

Healing Gardens – Planning, Design and Purpose

Carter Van Dyke
CVDA

SEP
18

Knockout Natives for Every Landscape

Denise Gilchrist
Mt. Cuba Center

OCT
23

Josephine: The Empress Gardened

Lesley Parness

NOV 20

Landscape Lighting FUNdamentals

Lori Metz
Carriage House Landscape
Designs

DEC
11

Ask the Ambler Experts - A Panel Discussion

Anne Brennan
Benjamin Snyder
Joe Imszennik

All programs take place in the evening at Temple University Ambler Campus.

Register and view more information including presenter information, specific times, locations and fees at <http://noncredit.temple.edu/series2019>.

Arboretum Members receive discounted admission. Students are free, but registration is required.

Email kathleen.salisbury@temple.edu for discount codes.

ambler.temple.edu/arboretum
arboretum@temple.edu
267-468-8000

/templeuniversityambler

@templeambler

Ambler Arboretum